BUENOS AYRES.

JAMES SAUNDERS begs to announce to his friends that he entered into Partnership with ALFRED KEYSER, and that the business of the late firm of Saunders and Thomas Abson, and lately conducted by J. Saunders, will be carried on by the new firm as heretofore.

The Machine Shop is now in working condition, and the workmen are now at their posts ; for orders in Engineering, &c., the former principle of punctuality and honest purpose for sample and execution of orders, thus combined with a practical knowledge of machinery may not at the shortest notice and on the most reasonable terms be executed.

The steam shop of Messrs. Saunders and Abson, after mature consideration, has been closed ; and as they are no longer responsible for any debts but their own, they request that all accounts due to the late firm may be sent in to them for settlement at the office of the new firm.

SAVING BANK.

BANK MAUA & Co.

—N. 103 calle Cangallo.—

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, and for the benefit of pecuniary her their savings.

The same deposited in that respectable mercantile institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been presented in this city by any commercial number of Clerks, artizans, workingmen & servants (of all classes & conditions) who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other Frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities to the city and will open, on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 calle Cangallo for 9 A. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and from 10 a. m. to 12 m. on days from 10 a.m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will open for each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefits derived from its operations which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also prevailed that this new branch of their business will confer important benefits on the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Bs. Ayres September 19th 1863.

BUENOS AYRES, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1863.

Great Restorer of Health.

The Standard Pills and Ointment.

These infallible remedies have already proved so beneficial that Dr. M. wishes to confer a benefit on mankind in general, and the public of Buenos Ayres in particular, by making known their extraordinary virtues for the cure of all classes of diseases to which the body-politic is subject, arising from weakness of constitution, improper care, intemperate habits, hereditary or chronic complaints, effects of the climate, general debility, bad state of the system, &c, &c.

The following are among the leading testimonials:—

San Isidro, Nov. 8, 1862.

General Mitre presents his compliments to Dr. M., and begs to testify that he has suffered for a long time from a scorbutic affection called the Rioja measles, which at times exhibits itself in a very desponding condition. Having successively tried Drs. Rojo and Sarmiento, both failed to effect a cure, and the system was considerably prejudiced he then called in Surgeon Sandes, whose method of blood-letting was even worse. In this manner the evil increased greatly, a quack named Pauners applied Cordobese leeches: meantime the whole body became covered with sores, and the leaning-out assumed such a leprous appearance that even Professor Wheelwright despaired of the case. The writer, however, has heard much of the Standard ointment, and wishes to try it as a dernier resort.

Buenos Ayres, War Office,
June 29th, 1861.

Dear Sir—I write to say that I am laid up with scarlet fever. If you can send me a soothing powder I do not mind your charges, as I understand you never publish anything gratuitously—ascribe my indisposition to over-excitement at an Oriental party, after which I was seized with vomiting, and then as much white stuff all my stomach. I now feel very low, as I fear Dr. Flores' prescriptions have done me harm.

Formerly I felt a very wild life, and was so strong that I could "knock down" a horse, but now I am so weak that my friends call me General Debility, and I have not a "puff" left. People were always "bidding" me try this or that for the blow of a Minie ball which I once received in a crowd, and they said my brain was affected. Nevertheless since I entered the House-machine my health has been much shaken, until the late attack which came on me in Congress, and I beg you will supply me with some of your Pills. My orderly (who is a most disorderly fellow) is troubled with a running sore, which has proved very infectious in the army, and I beg your valuable advice.

GENERAL KELLY.

Martin Garcia, Aug. 1, 1862.

The undersigned, Minister of Marine, solicits Dr. M.'s professional assistance. For several years he has been remarkable for Obes-ity. Last week he fell fond of a "painter," and being three sheets in the wind, after drinking much brance, his figure head was much damaged. Requesting a small box of ointment, he has the honor to remain,

J. A. Obes.

Plaza Mayo, Sept. 21, 1863.

Respected Sir,—I have the pleasure to inform you that your treatment has been eminently successful. The "affection of the chest" has unhappily pursued me through life, which was almost fatal to the whole system. A practitioner named Roas attended me for some time and I faithfully fulfilled his injunctions although I knew them to be injurious. Subsequently I have been under the treatment of several others, each a whom gave me up in turn as "incurable." I have unfortunately formed violent custom, which will pursue me to the grave, paying more attention to my neighbours Duties than my own. I find some thought of Almighty Dollar at thems—not even an assurance gives but they would be paid. Why? Because it would be contrary to the eternal balance, the constitution.

In fact though much we regret to say it, yet it is an undeniable fact, that all our prudent wishes to govern the country from anarchy, civil war, and ruin, he will consult the wishes of the industrious portion of his fellow citizens, and throw overboard the constitution, and these hair-splitting politicians.

According to the Constitution, Congress can only take an interest when the game now is to occupy the little precious time left in absurd disputes about fractions, and to widow's pensions, and so put off the only question before the house—the national debt. If this political trick succeeds, we are in for another session, and Congress to vote late every article in this humbug constitution, better continue Congress in direct violation of the law, better compel the deputies to vote the measure nolens volens than to allow profligate advisers and corrupt politicians to plunge the country into inextricable ruin.

If this Congress session terminates without adjusting the National Debt question, the most unpopular men in the Republic will be the President and his set of Ministers.

HURRAH FOR PEACE.

THE REVOLUTION OVER.

FLORES EVAPORATING.

The true friends of the Argentine Republic and the Banda Oriental, will learn, with pleasure, that at last this scandalous revolution is drawing to a close. In fact, all the lies printed by the steam machines in town, will fail to convince people now that Flores is going ahead. The following is a translation of a supplement we received yesterday from Montevideo, every word of which is true, we are assured by the correspondent, and also by some English passengers arrived—

"General Medina, after two days' constant pursuit, came up at last on the invaders at 'Las puntas del Yi;' the flying farmers were obliged to turn round and fight, as they had the river before and Medina behind them.' Flores ordered his men to halt and fight like men, not run away like a set of dogs. Medina and his men, however, gave no time to the American Walker little time to get his men in order, but charged sword in hand. Never before did the Government soldiers fight so well. Whether it was that they hoped to catch Flores, and get 5,000 ounces for him, or whether it was, that one thing there cannot be the slightest doubt Medina's men never fought so well. Poor Flores, when he saw his men taking to their heels, jumped into the Yi, and has not been since heard of. Some say he has been drowned, and that we are to have a magnificent funeral service in the Cathedral; others, that he swam to the opposite shore, and is travelling on foot, with a little black boy for his companion, in a rather sorrowful mood—

"If you blame my deep dejection,
Teach, oh! teach, me to forget."

But we are digressing. If we are to believe the above letter from the editor of 'Nation,' the carnage was frightful: out of 800 men, only 300 escaped, poor the unfortunate Americans, apropos, must be an Irishman) was overtaken and killed flying 3 Y's. We hope that O'Lid will be as successful as Medina.

The following is a letter which we received yesterday morning from Montevideo, and which may be relied upon:—

"Montevideo, Sept. 30, 1863.

"Dear Sir—It is now half-past two o'clock, and bells are ringing. I am told a despatch has just been with the news that Flores was defeated at Rincon de Ipacaco, in the Rio Negro. I cannot get hold of particulars till later. Some say he has been drowned in crossing the river, but I think it 'too good to be true;' it a bullet-in is printed before sailing of steamer, you will have it.

"Yours, &c.

"C."

"The barricades have been sold by public auction. Advantage are going at en grande. So I think the affair is finished."

OCCUPATION OF CARMELO.

On last Monday the war steamer 'Villa del Salto' halted near the above village, landing a corps of 41 infantry to serve as garrison; for, detached parties of free-booters had been seen in the neighborhood. With hearts beating high, the loyal defenders of the Constitution marched down to their destined quarters. No sooner, however, did the pacific inhabitants smell the blast of war borne on the evening breeze from the port-holes of the 'Villa del Salto,' than they were seized with alarm; and when the brilliant array of martial men was seen coming towards the town, a kind of heroic devotion animated each person to lock himself up, and die in defence of his Lares and Penates. With the same magnanimous stoicism that the Roman Senators displayed (maintaining their seats until the rude barbarians had pulled at their beards to see whether they were statues or meat), the Carmelians awaited the filibusters, for such they took the intruders to be.

It would have been dangerous for them to come out and receive the warriors with open arms and shouts of 'Viva Flores!' less they might make a fearful awkward mistake. For the same reason they displayed great prudence in waiting to see how the wind blew, before making any protestations of loyalty to the Government. Of course the police of this wise re-opened, and fire-works rent the air with applause; it was known that the new comers were friends of the good cause. Probably the same would have taken place were they Floreans, for the present wretched state of the Banda Oriental, the poor people have to shout Vivas and Mueras alternately 6 times a day, according to the caprice of the chieftain who had a sign-board with Louis XVIII. on one side and Napoleon on the other, to be turned as occasion suited.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The news from Montevideo yesterday was rather good; some said that Flores was drowned, others that he escaped on the bough of a tree down the Yi; but the last version is the best, that he started off on foot for the Gorilla country with a little black boy as an attendant. Colonel O'Lectmego is with 300 men, in hot pursuit, chasing some 300 black, white, and yellow vagabonds of the race where Medina made such havoc. If they are not caught we suppose they will escape. The plain fact of the matter is that the Flores dream is at last played out to the great satisfaction of the public.

We read in a Montevidean paper that there is every probability that Peñaloza and the President will come to terms, and that whatever terms the President gives the Chacho, Berro will give Flores.

A terrible row is at present going on about the stamp paper agencies, which the Government has given to merchants complain that it will be a frightful inconvenience for them and all people at law. We believe the Government means to waive the point.

The great event of the day was the opening of the new Savings Bank, by Mauá and Co. Everyone in town was talking about it, in fact we never saw anything take such a rage.

Paunero has marched out of Cordova with the 1st of the line, and established his head quarters at Villa Nueva.

The "Nacion Argentina" of yesterday states that the Provincial Congress will meet in Cordova, on the 1st of November, to frame a new Constitution. Why not? Constitutions are only waste paper, and the Argentines are fond of changing them.

Standard agent Banwitch we hear is a prisoner in Montevideo. We promise him if he only writes to us we will do our best to get him out.

The bishop is about to make a trip to the camp in a few days. We hope he Lordship will see that such places as Tuyu, Mucuna, and Junin which are more thickly populated, will no longer be left without a church and a clergyman.

The Congress men seem determined not to get through the President's bill of fare within the specified time. The newspaper editors are all ordered to be printed and presented in a readable shape. Tremendous opposition, we understand, is prepared for the London agent, the only company at present likely to pass being some Argentine society started on a good, monthly water capital.

The Spanish Consul, Duke of San Fernando, has opened a subscription list at his office, Hotel de la Paix, for the relief of sufferers at Manilla. The recent earthquake was one of the most total on record, reducing, in three minutes, to a heap of ruins, a city as large, opulent, and well-built as Buenos Ayres.

We trust our countrymen will lend a generous aid to the survivors. We have forgot the address to the following distinctive marks:—The paper has no water-mark, nor margin. It has 28 rays, the genuine &c. Asterisks engraved in the corners are smaller than they should be, and badly engraved. The line, For El Directorio &c., is very crooked, and the letter too large. The paper, numeration, and signatures, are totally different from those of paper used.

The creditors of the late Thomas Harkness are notified, by the judicial authorities, to send in their claims before November 1st. As usual, this is advertised in the very papers where it cannot be seen; we, therefore, copy it gratis, pro bono publico.

The functions of San Miguel, in honour of the Feast of the Archangel, terminated yesterday evening, a large concourse of respectable citizens assisting.

The 'Literal' states the ex president has offered a high post by Mitre, but refused. Also, 30-0 rifles have been sent up to Corrientes; 30 Entre Rians are ordered to Valdivia Urquiza into Banda Oriental; a serenade took place at Parana's to celebrate Flores' defeat; Gen. Paunero has been recalled. Most of the above is incredible.

Last night we had the pleasure to assist at a private performance given by M. Paul Bellini at Guinea's musical establishment. It is needless to say that all present were enchanted at the youthful artiste's proficiency and taste displayed on the violin; but we will let the public judge for themselves, as the first theatrical performance will shortly be given.

ANOTHER INDIAN INVASION.

We regret to notice that there has been another Indian invasion at a place called Puerte Constitution. We extract the following from the "Ferro carril" of Rosario:—

We are entirely surrounded, both on the north and south. On the 16th we received a hurried besieged by Indians, but the greater part of the invaders were Christians (gauchos): they took about 150 prisoners of both sexes, amongst whom were young girls and boys, and robbed the whole place of all the cattle, particularly of mares and horses.

Colonel Iseas, who was stationed in the fort with nearly 200 men, was unable to march out for the want of horses, and was obliged to limit his exertions to defending the town. This results from the Minis-er of War not having his frontier forces on a war footing.

We call attention to this scandalous culpability on the part of those whose duty it was to see that Iseas's men were supplied with horses.

ORIENTAL AFFAIRS.

A passenger arrived from Montevideo confirms the intelligence that one-half of the men on the body of filibusters has been either drowned or cut to pieces in crossing the Yi. It is thought Flores himself has escaped with 300 followers.

We understand that Mr. John M'Coll's house has been twice searched under pretence of concealed arms. This gentlemen complained to the British Consul, who will be laid before the Government. Mr. Lettsome, after three or four days, wrote in reply, "that seeing the actual state of siege, he was not certain that foreigners should not be subject to the same molestation as natives. However, Mr. M'Coll has better counsels at hand than the lawyer of Government question before again writing to him."

Mr. Richard Hughes has been so kind as to present the "Standard" office with a splendid map of Banda Oriental, mount d on canvass. This gives us an excellent idea of the present campaign, and we can trace the filibusters' route from Las Piedras, across the river Sta. Lucia and intermediate camps as far as the banks of the Yi, near which is situate Mr. Fair's fine estancia of San Jorge. It would seem they are making for Minas, instead of Colonia, with the probable object of inlisting near the Brazilian frontier, and making repeated irruptions into the less protected districts. In fact with a dozen horsemen Flores will be able to continue such warfare for twenty years, carrying terror and confusion into the very heart of the Republ c.

Chachos and filibusters are the curse of these countries, and it is to immigration that we must look for the best way is to come to an arrangement, however disgraceful to public morality. It is said Peñaloza demands a bounty of 20,000 silver dollars; probably Flores would ask even more; but peace purchased cheap at almost any amount of dollars. Let the Argentines and both these 'gauche' Generals enjoy, their own own dignitate, on the price of their future good behaviour.

Terrible Accident on the Railway.

The following letter has been received by the Duke of Wellington, from the celebrated lion-hunter, M. Jules Gerard—

"Monsieur le Duc—Your Grace is well aware that few men gain by being seen close, unless they are men of intellect. Now the King of Dahomey, despite his cognomen, which signifies the 'Eternal' or the 'Infinite,' fully justifies the title which he is no exception. Physically he is similar to the other blacks of his country—tall, well-built, a head like a bulldog. The most striking feature of his countenance is that of cunning and cruelty. His moral qualities are in keeping with his physical conformation; he is more gracious than the kings who have preceded him, founded few old traditions and customs. The traditions of that nicrocapious court are to turn the whites to the best possible account (exploiter les blancs), but especially to induce them to make presents. It is the custom to excite the people with sanguinary spectacles, so as to be able to carry off the neighbouring population when a slave dealer makes an offer to the king, and also at the annual custom of human sacrifices.

I have just been to the city of Kana, where the King was staying for the celebration of the lesser ceremonies. On the day of my presentation I was conducted across the public place, where twelve corpses were exposed to view on separate sites. Six were hung up by the feet, the others were upright like men about to walk. Those whom I saw close were horribly mutilated and not beheaded. An enormous pool of blood covered the ground beneath the scaffold, giving unmistakable evidence of previous sacrifices and of the tortures which accompanied them. After receiving me the King was brilliant, very cordial for myself as well as for the French consul; but we were obliged to forget the ceremonies that this was but a comedy always performed by this poor Paladin to get the presents brought by the white. Born and nurtured in the midst of these spectacles, which would be ridiculous if they were not horrible, the present King is actually more fond of them than his predecessors. The

MISCELLANY.

ANCIENT SCIENCE OF COURTSHIP.—There were four degrees or stages in the progress of this knightly love. When desirous of pleasing, but afraid to speak, and paying only mute court, the knight was then a hesitant; when encouraged so far as to humbly express his feelings, otherwise than by dumb show, he was a pirant; when retained as a knight, and given a silk cord, gloves, or a sash to wear—her colours. In fact—he was then an ecoute, a knight who has a right to maintain the supremacy of his lady's charms against all comers, and wear her colours in his helmet; but if after this she subsequently pledged her love to him, and gave him a kiss, then he was her drute or aut, her friend nearer and dearer to her than any other human being, for whom was reserved all the ineffable love of her soul, all the gracious tenderness of her heart and fancy. This was the bann which fair and fruitful Provence gave to the women of the middle ages! the effects of which were felt to the further corner of the then civilized world, and which have not entirely died away, even to this day. Dante is full of this chivalric, or what we should now call missionary, and platonic, love for Beatrice; and in many of the older poets before Dante, the same, exalted state of spiritual ecstacy is to be treated.

NOT TO BE TRIFLED ON OATH—Any American news which is headed Per-jury—"Punch."

The corn harvest has terminated in Egypt. It is generally satisfactory, and superior in quantity to that of last year.

An infamous attempt has been made to destroy, by fire, Godalming parish church. A man, against whom strong circumstantial evidence exists, is in custody on the charge of having committed the offence.

Duke Phillip of Wurtemberg, son of the Duke Alexander and the Princess Mary of Orleans, has demanded in marriage the hand of the Princess Charlotte Augusta, younger daughter of Duke Max of Bavaria.

NAPOLEONIC.—Do ing the hesitancy to attack Lee, while the latter was re-coping, Gen. Meade had ordered Gen. Halleck the divided opinion of his council of war. The following is the sub tance of Gen' Halleck's reply: "It is probable that council of war never fi ht. Attack the enemy at once, and hold your council of war after words." It was a plagiarism from Napoleon; but now the latter was applied to the occasion.—New York Tablet

"WHICH WAY DID YOU CAMPAIGN, SIR.—A curious incident gained the affections of a daughter of Professor Wilson, united upon "pairs" not at all his ideas of which is the best way to conduct a sinkling. The young gentleman was directed to devote the lady to cause to her future, and, as all the world knows, he was proved. Professor Wilson had but one him in review some work, on the difficulties of which was duly unveiled with "Which the author's compliments." Return this out, pinned to his daughters, solemnly led her to the young lover, and went back to his work.

PAPER DUTIES.—The Times city article says that both in Paris and London the tendency in favour of paper stamp duty to be making progress. The belief is that owing to the commerce which has grown up between England and France during the past few years, and which seems each month to open a new force, there is a solid amount of opinion in France that trade is constantly to be disquiet hindered by the weight of the strength of which the Emperor himself, although he has created it is scarcely yet fully organ ant.

HOW LORD DERBY WILL LIGHTEN THE INCOME SICK.—At the recent examination (says the Dundee Courier) of Mr John Leigh, Lamb's, Manchester, in a state cuveling the box to be examined, the following conversation took place between her and the opposing agent:—"How old are you?" "60, well, eh; I am a unmarried woman, and I think I might to answer that question."—An Judge: "60, you are over the age allowed by law etc"—Miss Jane: "Well a well I am sixty fifty"—AGE IS A TRIFLE.

New York Wool Market Sept. 1st.

Unwashed Vestian Wool.—The transactions have not been large for the past month, and very little inquiry except for strictly prime lots. Some of the manufacturers are using more freely of Cape and Mestiza wool, on account of the unwillingness of the farmers to sell the domestic clip at market prices, and this circumstance has, no doubt, caused more sales to be made than would otherwise have been effected. The total quantity placed since my last circular is not over 700 bales, of from 24 cts to 28 cts per lb, net cash. At an auction sale on the 12th inst, 70 bales were sold at 24 cts, for Mexino; 22½ and 23½ cts, for No. 1; 19 cts, per lb, for good conditioned Nos. 2 and 3; 17½ a 18 cts, for inferior conditioned Nos. 2, 3, and Mestizona. The balance of the lots were withdrawn.

General Remarks on the Wool Market.—There has been but little activity in the wool market for the past month, and no material change in prices, although the decline in gold all prices rule lower. No sales of consequence are reported of our domestic clip, and farmers still show a disposition to hold on to their wool. It is calculated that not more than 15 per cent, to 20 per cent, of the clip is sold, and purchases could now be made at a much lower figure than has been already sold was taken at. The manufacturers are not in stock, and are waiting for political affairs to justify their operations largely.

The draft for soldiers authorized by Congress is now taking place, and the Union armies are being filled up. This circumstance has caused more inquiry for medium wools, and we anticipate a better trade in this description of wool the next month.

COLLARD AND COLLARD'S

PIANOFORTES.

In leaving town without a re-turn, Collard and Collard, manufacturers of Cabinet Pianos in London, left a great number of Cottage and Cabinet Pianos in the hands of their agents in this city, and as they intend to withdraw entirely from the South American continent, they will not be able to supply any more instruments. Consequently all those Pianos, or whatever else may be in the hands of their agents, will be sold at a cheap rate, and without reserve, as the agents have received instructions to that effect. Among the instruments to be sold are those which were exhibited by Messrs Collard and Collard, at the Great Exhibition of 1862, and which received the highest award, being the most powerful and magnificent instrument of the kind ever manufactured.
